

General Information

The Financial Self-Sufficiency Contract is a legal instrument by which you agree to provide for your essential needs and, where applicable, those of the persons accompanying you to Québec, namely your spouse or common-law partner and your dependent children, including those who are Canadian citizens, where applicable. It takes effect on the day you arrive in Québec as a permanent resident and is valid for three months.

The essential needs covered by the contract include, among other things, food, accommodation, clothing and any other personal needs.

As required by the Québec Immigration Act and the Regulation Respecting Immigration to Québec, you must subscribe to this contract, failing which your application for permanent selection will not be accepted.

Who must complete this form?

You must complete this form if you are in any of the following situations:

- you are applying for permanent selection under the Regular Skilled Worker Program, and you are submitting this application as a principal applicant;
- you are already in Québec to study or work temporarily and have applied for permanent selection under the Regular Skilled Worker Program.

If your spouse or common-law partner is accompanying you, you must provide the requested information and have them co-sign the form.

This form does not apply to you if you are a live-in caregiver, or if you have been authorized by Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada to apply for permanent residence in Canada on humanitarian grounds. If this is your situation, you must instead complete the Financial Self-Sufficiency Contract – Live-in Caregiver and Person Authorized to Submit an Application for Permanent Residence in Canada on Humanitarian Grounds (A-0522-PF).

Procedure

This Financial Self-Sufficiency Contract has two sections. In Section A, you must provide the requested information about yourself and the persons accompanying you, if applicable. You must answer all questions accurately.

Section B is your commitment. You must read it carefully and sign it. Do not forget to enter, in point 1, the amount you will have at your disposal when you arrive in Québec to support yourself and the people accompanying you, if applicable.

Depending on whether your spouse and dependent children are accompanying you or not, you must apply a different scale to calculate the minimum amount you must have to provide for your essential needs during the three months following your arrival in Québec and those of the persons accompanying you, if applicable.

You must send us the Financial Self-Sufficiency Contract (sections A and B of this form) duly completed and signed with your selection request. We ask that you not attach the two general information pages to your mailing.
